

PASTORAL TRANSITIONS

IMPACT REPORT 2023

Serving ministry leadership as they care for departing leaders and their families.

We care about the church. We care about pastors and their families.

When you have to let a pastor or ministry leader go, the potential for hurt and misunderstanding rises exponentially depending on how leadership manages the situation.

We saw a need in the church and wanted to change it. This is the story of our impact in 2023.

Thank you!

We walk with outgoing pastors on behalf of the church leadership.

Our goal is to help ministries transition outgoing leaders well.

But why?

It enhances church unity.

It models the love of Jesus.

It breeds a healthy pastoral transition.

“A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

- John 13:34-35

CAREER

A suite of services to help pastors and other ministry professionals explore and successfully execute career transitions into current or alternative vocations that align with their calling, gifts, talents, and experiences.

COACHING

We pull from a variety of coaching perspectives to help individuals identify their next steps. We work with each person to create a custom coaching plan that will help them through this time of transition.

COUNSELING

We provide counseling services for the whole family because we know that a healthy family makes for a healthy transition. Transitional counseling begins to address trauma, depression, marriage conflicts, and family challenges.

RESTORING THE CHURCH'S ORIGINAL MISSION STATEMENT

The Symbol of Multiplication: X

The symbol of multiplication is a simple, yet powerful concept that we encounter in our daily lives. It is represented by the symbol X, which, if you look at it as an image, extends on forever. This endless X symbolizes the growth we are called to as a body of believers – both individually and collectively.

The Symbol of Division: ÷

The symbol of division is represented by the character ÷, which – when looked at from above – resembles two heads divided by a wall between them. This wall, like the endless X in multiplication, also extends forever. As Christians, we are called to live in unity with one another and to break down any barriers that may divide us.

Transition is hard enough, but if you think you are doing it alone, there is nothing harder. We needed a place to send leaders in transition so they could find hope - so they would know there is Life AFTER Ministry.

From stories of those who lived through it and found they could thrive, to experts and partners we work with everyday to change how we navigate ministry transitions.

And we've been featured on:

We have been building our network of ministry partners!

- American Association of Christian Counselors
- Boone Center for the Family
- Calvary Global Network
- Church Well Co
- Emmaus Road Counseling

We deeply value the power of partnership. In the journey of supporting outgoing leaders, we firmly believe that no one should walk alone – and neither do we. Our ever-growing network of ministry partners is a testament to our commitment to providing comprehensive support. Together, we stand committed to ensuring that no outgoing leader faces their journey in isolation, but is surrounded by a community of support, every step of the way.

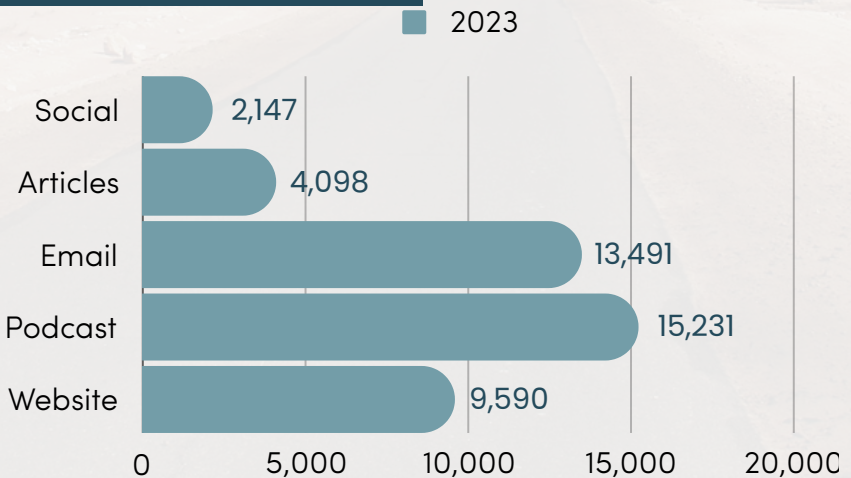

After serving in our various fields of expertise, we decided to bring our expertise together in 2022 to serve churches, nonprofits, missions agencies, and Christian higher education.

STORIES OF IMPACT

Hope & Healing

"My moral betrayal was devastating, not only in my life, but how it rippled into all my relationships. I also know what it took to pick up the pieces and move toward restoration. My friend Matt has a heart for the long-term healing of both pastors and those they served. Pastoral Transitions is not only needed but vital for the health of the Church."

- Paul Young, Author, The Shack

"I was laid off from a big church in May, 2023 after 5 years of full-time ministry and over 12 years of investment in the church as attendees and serving in various ministries. The let go was unexpected and traumatic for me and my family to say the least. I wanted to say thank you for having this ministry."

- Former Pastor

"We found ourselves immediately moving from being surrounded by a loving community to total isolation. We were looking for safety, support, and hope - and we couldn't find it anywhere. Meeting the team at Pastoral Transitions felt like the first time we could breathe again."

- Wife of Former Pastor

SUPPORT PASTORAL TRANSITIONS

Give today

We see too many pastors let go from their positions without support. Your generosity can support pastors in transition.

By supporting Pastoral Transitions,

- you will provide personalized support for pastors and their families in transition
- you will foster a community of grace and for those in challenging seasons
- you will equip outgoing pastors to navigate their next steps with confidence and clarity
- you will be part of something greater, making a difference in the lives of others
